How to setup SQLiteStudio

Download SQLiteStudio here in this https://sqlitestudio.pl/ and extract folder to save it in your program files as you wish.
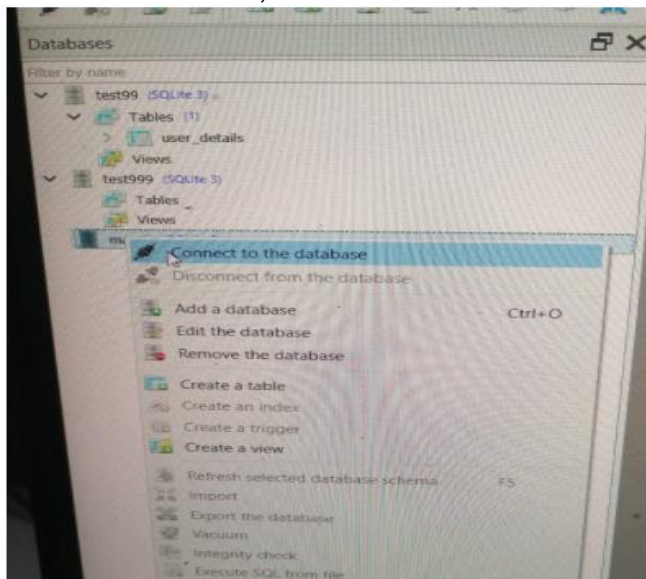

Locate SQLiteStudio application and open it.

Now a database can be created or added by :
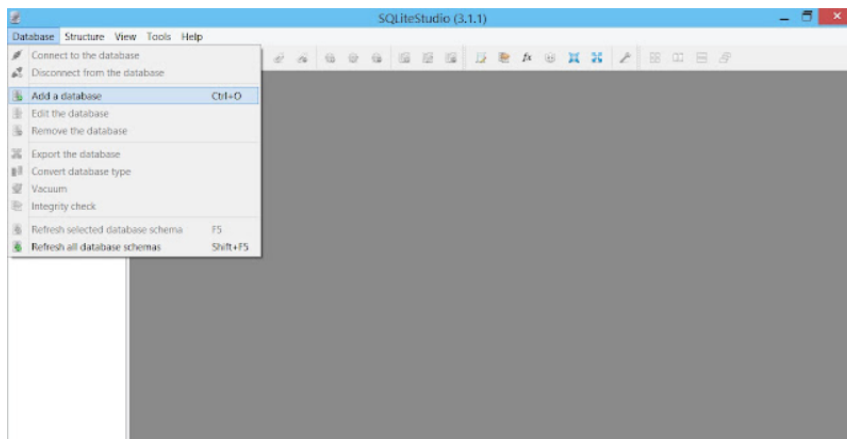

Click the green add button so that your file will already be written with .db extension when you choose your location to save your database and its name.

Note: Be sure that, there is a connection to database by Clicking from

After the creation of database, use the structure tab or button to create table .You will see a window like this below for setrtung your table . Click the green check button at the top to confirm table setup.
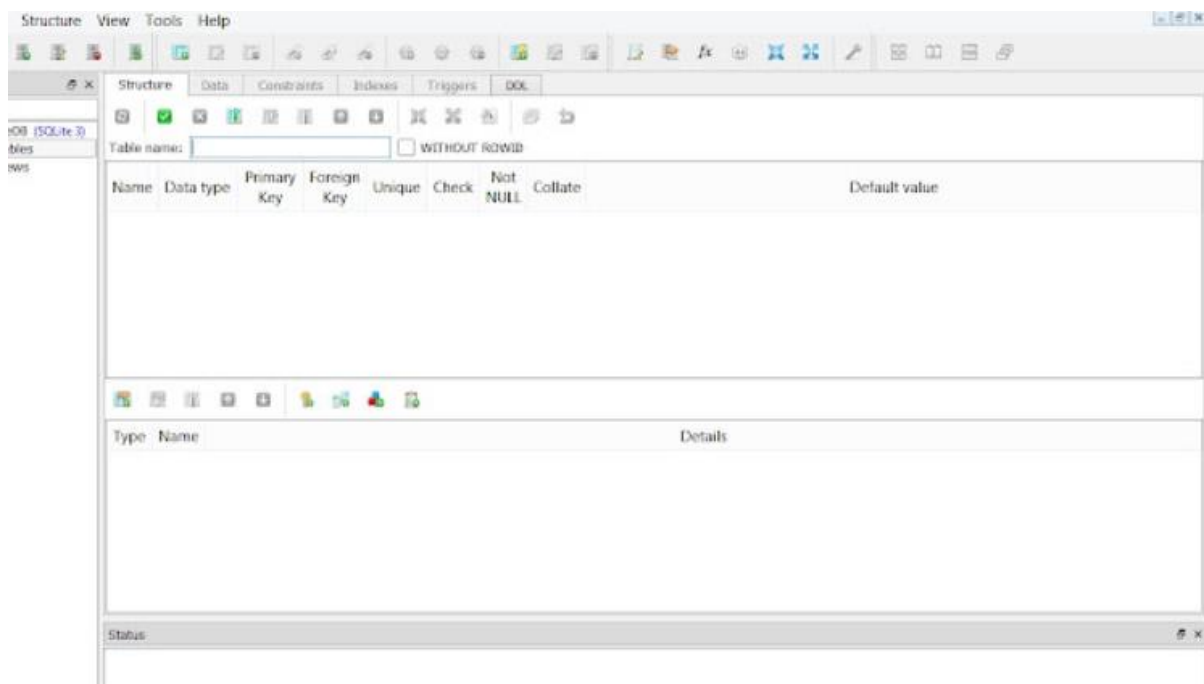

You need a SQL window to work in. Click the icon for Open SQL editor or use the menu item Tools and Open SQL editor and start writing queries .